25X1A2g 4. For [REDACTED] Realize six copy requirement may prove onerous at times, (particularly on specialized reports) but feel these reports constitute important and timely input in intelligence flow for these commands which are intimately involved in command decisions relative to operational activities in the Indochina theatre and SE Asia in general.

5. Station respectfully suggests that [REDACTED] components 25X1A2g keep in mind the perishable nature of many of these issuances and as often as possible expedite their delivery to us. Several useful papers have been overtaken by events perhaps simply due to administrative delays and were useful for
